

LITITZ CHRISTIAN SCHOOL NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY CHAPTER BYLAWS

Introduction

The National Honor Society is known by secondary and post-secondary academic institutions across the nation as the time-honored organization established to recognize students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. These characteristics have been associated with NHS membership since the organization's inception in 1921. Today, it is estimated that over a million students participate in chapter activities of the National Honor Society. Chapters are established in all 50 states, Washington DC, Puerto Rico, and Canada. While members' achievements are acknowledged through local membership, these young adults are challenged to further personal development through active involvement in school activities and community service.

The Lititz Christian School chapter of the National Honor Society was formed during the 2005-2006 academic year. That year each student who met the minimum GPA (grade point average) requirement of 3.30 was invited to submit an application to the NHS Faculty Council. The Council then evaluated those applications, keeping in mind the four tenets of the national NHS organization as well as the spiritual integrity displayed by the applicants. Fifteen students were inducted into the society that first year. In 2009, the Faculty Council voted to raise the academic standards for membership, requiring the students to have a 3.50 GPA.

Section 5. A member shall be subject to dismissal for failure to exemplify positive leadership to the Society, Lititz Christian School, or the community.

Section 6. In the event of a serious violation of school rules or civil law, a member may be dismissed from the Society without having been given previous warning; however, a hearing should still be held for such cases. Lacking a serious offense, the member shall be given a warning (by majority vote of the Council) and a one semester probationary period prior to a decision about dismissal from the Society. Written notice of the warning and probationary period should be given to the student, the student's parents or guardians, and the secondary principal.

Section 7. Any member who is a candidate for dismissal shall have the right to a pre-dismissal hearing before the Faculty Council. As due process guaranteed by the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, the member must be notified in writing of the action being contemplated, the reasons for the action, the date and time of the hearing, and must be given the opportunity to respond either in writing or orally. The member's parents or guardians may be present at the hearing; however, it is primarily the responsibility of the member to present his/her own case.

Section 8. Dismissal shall be determined by vote of the Faculty Council and approval by the secondary principal. The Council shall exhibit Christian grace in deliberations concerning dismissal of a member for character and leadership violations. Written notification of the dismissal shall be given to the student, the student's parents or guardians, and the secondary school principal.

Section 9. A Chapter officer who is a candidate for removal from office shall have the right to speak before the Faculty Council prior to the vote on removal from office.

Section 11. If the President must be replaced, the Vice-President shall become the new President. The replacement for the positions of Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be made by vote of the Chapter membership.

Section 12. Appeals of decisions on dismissal or removal from office should be made to the senior administrator. Because each chapter is responsible for establishing its own membership regulations and procedures, appeal should not be made to the National Honor Society or the National Association of Secondary School Principals. If a dismissal decision is reversed upon appeal, the members of the Society and Faculty Council should be gracious in restoring the member.

Section 13. A member may choose to resign from the National Honor Society. Letters of resignation should be dated and signed by both the student and his/her parents or guardians. Upon receipt by the Council by the letter, the student shall be notified that membership in the Society can never again be attained and should be given the opportunity to withdraw the resignation. Students cannot be forced to resign because that is tantamount to a dismissal.

Section 14. As specified in the handbook of the National Honor Society, a student who is dismissed or resigns is never again eligible for membership in the National Honor Society.

Article IV: Amending the Bylaws

Section 1. Recommendations to change the bylaws may be made by students, parents, faculty, or administration. The bylaws may be amended by majority vote of the Faculty Council.
